Whitehall, Decemb. 9.

LETTERS from the Camp at Stirling of the 4th Inſtant, ſay they had Intelligence that the Rebels under the Earl of Mar had ſent off part of their Baggage to Dunkeld, about 14 Miles North of Perth, and that they were providing a great Quantity of Meal at that Place. An Expreſs was juſt come to the Camp, with an Account that a Ship was arrived at Leith, having on board between 3 and 400 Men of the Dutch Troops; and that ſo many of the reſt of thoſe Troops as went by Sea, were hourly expected. Brigadier Grant's Regiment having received their Cloathing at Edinburgh, the Duke of Argyle had ordered them to joyn him in the Camp.

Whitehall, Decemb. 10. Yeſterday the Principal Rebels taken at Preſton, with their Servants, were brought to London, and committed Priſoners to the Tower, the Marſhalſea, Newgate, and the Fleet. There was a vaſt Concourſe of People along the Road from Highgate, and in the Streets through which they paſſed; who gave moſt remarkable Demonſtrations of their Abhorrence of this Rebellion, and of their Loyalty to his Majeſty; the Names of the Chief of the ſaid Priſoners are as follows.
